FOREST AND AGRICULTURE SECRETARIAT

Dated 31st March 1953.

No. A.F. 13144—Agri. 47-52-2. The following rules are issued for the guidance of the officers of the Agriculture and Food Production Departments in connection with the issue of Priority Certificates for the movement by Rail of manures required for Grow More Food.—

Definition.—'Food Crop' means Paddy, irrigated Ragi or Jola.

(i) Only movement of manures required under Grow More Food for application of Food Crops, should be sponsored by the Assistant Directors of Agriculture in charge of Districts as per instructions from the Government of India.

(ii) No certificates should be issued in respect of movement of manures intended for commercial and non-food crops or for other purposes, such movements being left to take their chance in the order of registration of applications for wagons. Certificates should be given only if there is specified evidence that the applicant whether ryot or merchant or mixing firm, has actually contracted for groundnut oil cake or other manures for which priority assistance is applied for.

(iii) When ryots apply for certificates they should be required by the Assistant Directors of Agriculture in charge of Districts to furnish Survey Numbers, etc., of their lands for which manures are required and if the Assistant Directors in charge of Districts are satisfied that the manures are for application to food crops and the quantities specified are reasonable in relation to the holdings, certificate should be freely given.

(iv) If the certificates are required by trade or mixing firms, an undertaking should be obtained by the Assistant Director of Agriculture of the receiving District that the materials are required for food crops and will be sold or used for such crops only.

(v) Separate accounts should be maintained by the consignees showing the stock received and how they have been disposed of. Books should be furnished when required for inspection by the Officers of the Agricultural Department. If, for example, it is a case of groundnut oil cake for which the certificate is applied for by the consignor, he should along with his application, send an undertaking from the consignee that the manure would be sold for application of food crops only ; and only to those producing a certificate from an Officer of Agricultural Department not below the rank of an Agricultural Inspector that the quantity required by the buyer is for bona fide Grow More Food purpose. Particulars of despatches made by the consignor should be furnished by him to the Assistant Director of Agriculture of the receiving area to enable him to check whether it is being sold in accordance with the undertaking.

By Order and in the name of the Rajpramukh,

A. S. KHALEEL,
Secretary to Government,
Forest and Agriculture Departments.
